

Jesus: The Master of the Storm

John 6:16-21

Introduction: Albert Einstein, the father of the nuclear age once said, “The most beautiful thing we can experience is the mysterious. It is the source of all true art and science. He to whom this emotion is a stranger, who can no longer pause to wonder and stand in rapt awe, is as good as dead; his eyes are closed.” As we resume our study of John, we are stepping once again into the world of the miraculous. Today we are going to relive one of the strangest incidents in the unusual life of Jesus...Jesus walking on the water.

The Politically Charged Setting (vs. 14-15)

• The Details that John Leaves Out

• Why does John include Jesus walking on the water?

The Threatening Storm (vs. 16-18)

The Miracle (vs. 19-20)

The Response (vs. 21)