

4) Were there additional lessons that came to your mind? Share them with the group and make sure that you ground those lessons in the word of God.

5) When you consider the five lessons we learn from this relationship, which ones have not been a priority in your life? Why do you think you have not made it a priority ?

6) What can your group do to encourage one another to prioritize these lessons in your lives?

7) Pray for one another, remembering the specific lessons where individual group members would like to experience growth.
