THIRTY REASONS TO REJOICE – Overview of Philippians

Questions:

Go through Jerry's list of the Thirty Reasons to Rejoice and discuss the following questions:

1. Are some of the reasons to rejoice more difficult to truly see as a source of genuine joy?
2. Why do you think these reasons are more difficult to experience as sources of joy?
3. Which of the reasons given have been more natural or more consistent sources of joy in your life?
4. Why have these reasons been more natural or more consistent?
5. Are any of the reasons to rejoice that Jerry gave new or unfamiliar to you?
6. Which of the 30 reasons might God be wanting you to find as a more consistent source of joy.
