2) As believers we long for peace, for a world without the taint of sin. What passages come to mind as you process though what New Creation might look like? Just for fun, speculate what New Creation might be like together (will you need to shower, what kind of food will you eat, etc.).

3) John writes about the binding of Satan for 1,000 years (vs. 2-3). What comfort is given in these verses? How does that affect how we are to live out our lives right now?

4) In Vs. 4 John talks about those how were martyred for not bowing to the beast. Looking at todays world are there any parallels that you see with our brothers and sisters around the world? How can we be ministering to them even now?
5) After reading God's plan for the end of chaos and sin, we can be confident in his plans for the here and now. Let us continue to lift up our fellow believers in this dark time, as well as their countries. With that, lets keep our Pastors, Elders, and leaders covered in prayer. How can you be praying for each other?
