

Why the Law

Galatians 3:19-36

Introduction: Some Christians believe that keeping the 10 Commandments is the goal of their Christian life. To proudly say: "I live by God's rules. Obeying the 10 Commandments is all I need to do to please God." But should our focus be on rule keeping? Is keeping the 10 Commandments the goal of the Christian life?

Three reasons why God gave the Law. Galatians 3:19-26

1. The Law was given because of transgressions. (vs. 19)

2. The Law was given to point out our hopeless condition. (vs. 22)

3. The Law was given to prepare us to receive Christ. (vs. 24)

Conclusion: God's Law is holy, just and good and if you stay within its boundaries, you will live a better life.
