

Man: Sanctity of Life

Psalm 8; Psalm 139

Psalm 8 gives a glimpse into man's true origin, identity, and eternal worth.

- Psalm 8 begins and ends with the same theme: God is the majestic and powerful Creator of all things. (vs. 1, 9)
- Vs. 2 teaches us that even a small child can comprehend the majesty of God the Creator.
- Vs. 3 turns our gaze upward to study the order, the incomprehensible design and exquisite beauty of our solar system and beyond that God created.
- Vs. 4 poses the main question
- Vs. 5 defines man in glowing terms

Psalm 139 takes the telescopic lens of Scripture and turns it into a microscope

- Vs. 17-18 reveal God's love for us

Conclusion: Ten implications of Psalm 8 and 139.

1. God considers all human life sacred and valuable. Sick or well, young, or old...all life is precious.
2. Life begins at conception.
3. Unborn babies are precious human beings and must be protected.
4. Abortion is killing a child made in God's image.
5. Rescuing an unborn child is a noble moral cause for the church and Christians.
6. Helping a pregnant mother keep her unborn child is compassionate and right.
7. Your life is eternally significant to God, so never allow yourself to think otherwise.
8. God planned specific things for you to do. So, find God's will and do it.
9. The sacrifice of Jesus, the Son of God, places infinite and eternal value on believers.
10. In heaven, God will crown believers with glory and honor.
