

Spiritual Gifts: The Spoils of Christ's Victory

1 Corinthians 12:1-3; Ephesians 4:7-16

God as One God, eternally existing in three equal Persons intentionally designed the church, the body of Christ, to be ONE body but with many diverse members. (Ephesians 4:4-6)

The Corinthian church was ignorant of their unity and diversity in Christ; therefore, they were divided by their differences. (1 Corinthians 12:1-7)

Spiritual gifts are the spoils of Christ's victory. (Ephesians 4:7-10)

What are spiritual gifts?

Spiritual gifts are divine capacities given to every believer in order for them to serve God, build up other believers and ultimately glorify God.

God choose gifted leaders to build up the church. (Ephesians 4:11-12)

The purpose, goal and outcomes of the gifts. (Ephesians 4:12-16)
